Williams elected to HORNE LLP's Board of Directors; Alexander re-elected

RIDGELAND, Miss., June 6, 2016 – HORNE LLP, one of the top 50 accounting and business advisory firms in the nation, announced today the election of David Williams, CPA, MPH, FHFMA, and the re-election of Robert Alexander, CPA/ABV/CFF, ASA, to HORNE's Board of Directors.

Williams is a partner in healthcare services and serves as the leader of healthcare reimbursement and advisory services. With more than 30 years of collaborating with community hospitals, health systems and related healthcare entities, William's recent focus is assisting organizations adapt to the evolving care delivery models. He has experience in assessing and re-positioning systems to meet the changing needs in the communities they serve. Given his vast knowledge of federal, state and other reimbursement programs, Williams spends his time assisting health entities maneuver the complexities of the changing reimbursement systems as they move from a volume based foundation to one that is based upon outcomes and value to the patients and community. Williams graduated from The University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and a Master of Public Health in Policy and Administration.

Alexander is the firmwide director of fraud, forensic and litigation services for the firm and also serves on HORNE's technology steering committee. He specializes in forensic accounting, including economic damages – lost profits, loss of business value, economic analysis, business valuation and fraud consultation. Alexander joined HORNE in 1994 after spending 10 years in Memphis with an international accounting firm. He has extensive experience with litigation and expert testimony and has testified as a financial, accounting, economic damages and business valuation expert in numerous state and federal courts. Alexander graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1984.

HORNE is a decidedly different CPA and business advisory firm that is changing expectations about accounting. HORNE goes beyond traditional accounting to steer clients through uncertainties and opportunities. We focus our knowledge and experience in banking, construction, franchise, government, healthcare and public and middle market.
