

Revenue Recognition Implementation Guide

After years of proposed changes to the Revenue Recognition standards, CICPAC has released their official Revenue Recognition Implementation Guide to aid the construction industry in recognizing revenue associated with contracts. This guide has been created and reviewed by the best in the industry, including our own Matt Ferrell, and should be considered the “go to guide” as it addresses the issues that are most pressing to construction companies.

Download the guide here.